

Table of Contents

Chapter One: Developing an EEO, Discrimination, Harassment & Bullying Policy

Why should companies have a policy?	1
Minimising your vicarious liability - comprehensive workplace policy	1
Policy development	2
Emerging issues which should be considered in developing and applying a policy	3
Other steps to minimise vicarious liability	3
Role and skills of Contact Officers	3

Chapter Two: Latest Developments

Discrimination laws under the Fair Work Act 2009 (FW Act)	1
General Protections	1
Disability discrimination legislative changes	2
Pregnancy	2
Does an employer have to find alternative work for a pregnant employee who cannot perform her normal duties?	3
What is the employer's obligation to provide maternity leave to an employee who has had less than 12 months service?	3
If an employee wants to work part-time or to job-share after parental leave does the employer have to agree?	4
What type of work must an employer offer an employee returning to work after parental leave?	7
Parental / Family / Carer Responsibilities	8
Does an employer have to do anything more to accommodate an employee's family responsibilities than grant them carers leave prescribed in the Australian Fair Pay and Conditions Standard or relevant award?	9
Can an employer change the hours of work of a workplace where the proposed change would impact on the employee's ability to manage family or carer's responsibilities?	10
Bullying	14
What recourse does an employee who has been bullied at work have?	15
Equal Opportunity Legislation	15
Occupational Health and Safety Legislation	16
Accident Compensation / Workers Compensation Legislation	17
Unfair Dismissal Legislation	17
Recourse under Criminal Codes	18
Common Law	18
Disability and workers' compensation issues	19
Is an employer's duty of care paramount when they are managing employees with injuries?	19
How can an employer minimise its risk of discrimination against employees with workplace injuries?	21
Is a drug addiction a disability?	21

Racial and religious vilification	23
Managing workplace celebrations and social functions	23
Are employers responsible for employees' behaviour at social gatherings?	23
What steps can an employer take to reduce the risk of harassment and discrimination at social functions?	24
Vicarious liability	25
Where does the workplace start and finish?	25
New ground of discrimination in Victoria - employment activity	26

Chapter Three: Sample Policies

Using this policy	1
EEO, Discrimination, Harassment & Bullying Policy (Table of Contents)	3
EEO, Discrimination, Harassment & Bullying Policy	5
Introduction	5
Objectives	5
Relevant legislation	5
What is Equal Employment Opportunity?	6
What situations are covered by this policy?	6
Who is covered?	6
Grounds of harassment and discrimination	7
Victoria	7
New South Wales	7
Queensland	8
South Australia	9
Western Australia	9
Tasmania	10
Australian Capital Territory	10
Northern Territory	11
Definitions	11
Discrimination	11
Direct discrimination	11
Indirect discrimination	11
Harassment	12
Vilification	12
Bullying	12
Examples of inappropriate behaviour	13
Who's responsible?	14
Victimisation	14
Responsibilities	14
Consequences of breaching policy	15

Procedure for Handling Harassment , Discrimination and Bullying Issues.....	16
Procedure	16
Completely confidential	16
Impartial	16
Free of repercussions	16
Timely	16
Step-by-step procedure	16
Resolution	17
If complaint not substantiated	17
Record keeping.....	17
Other resources	18
Working together at XYZ PTY LTD	18
What do you do if you're being harassed, bullied or discriminated against? ..	18
Equal opportunity for women in the workplace	19

Chapter Four: Ai Group and Ai Group Legal Services

