

Empowering Indigenous Enterprise!

Wuu-rrri is a Gamilaroi word meaning 'to give'.

Every transaction from a Wuu-rrri vending machine fuels our mission to empower Indigenous enterprise, through key capacity and support programs for existing businesses, and educational programs for our youth, the next generation of Indigenous entrepreneurs.

Wuu-rrri Vending is a great way to maximise your economic and social impact in Aboriginal communities.

By simply hosting these beautiful machines in your workplace including corporate offices, crib rooms or outdoor sites you can contribute to the work of the NSWICC to develop the capacity of Indigenous owned businesses, increase local employment and support local youth initiatives.
